

ZANDER STAYS

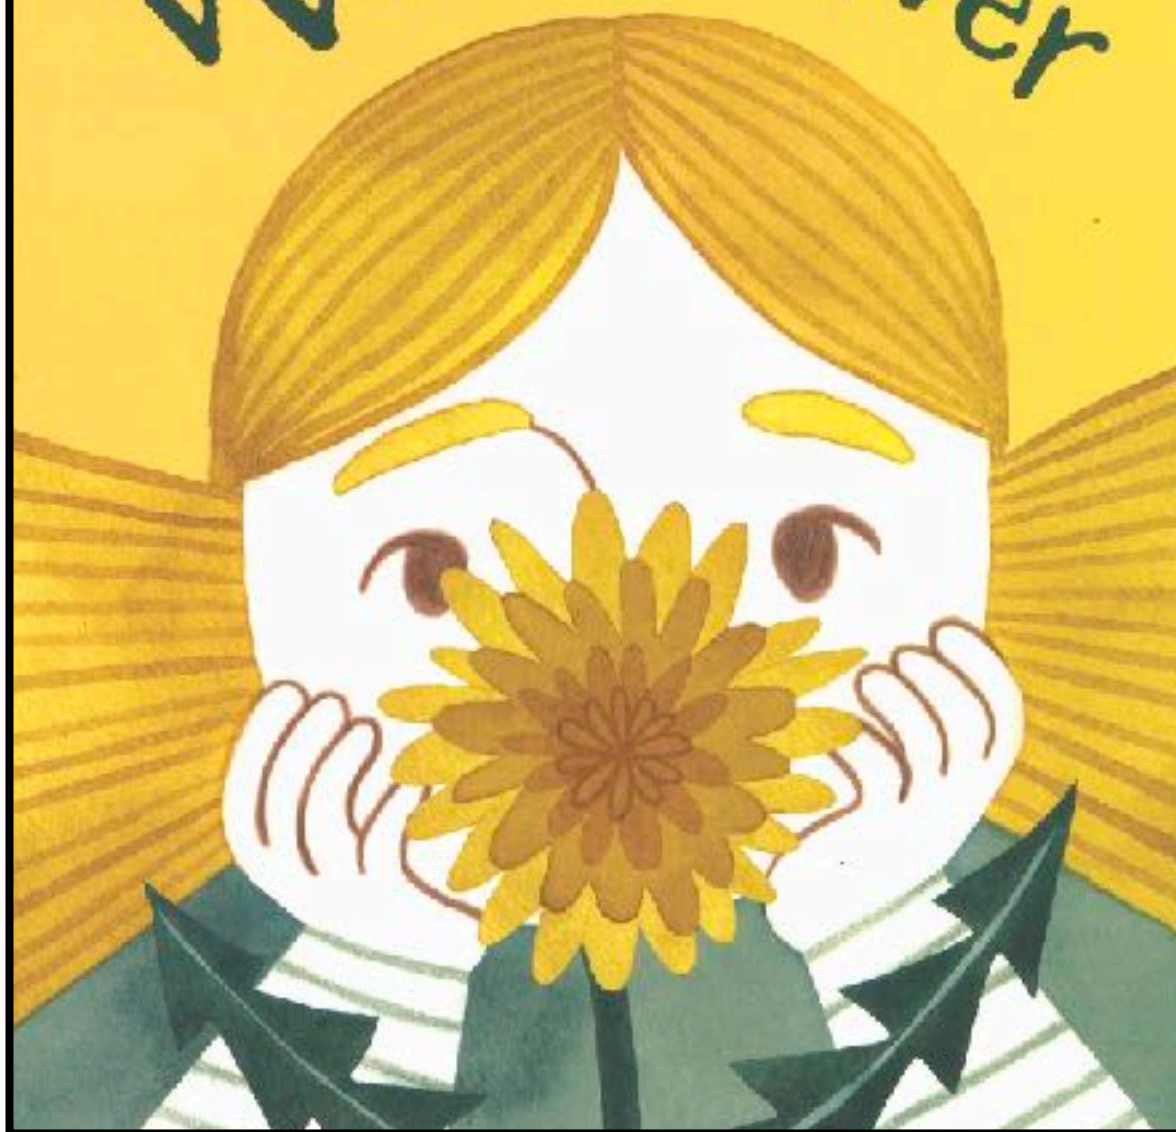

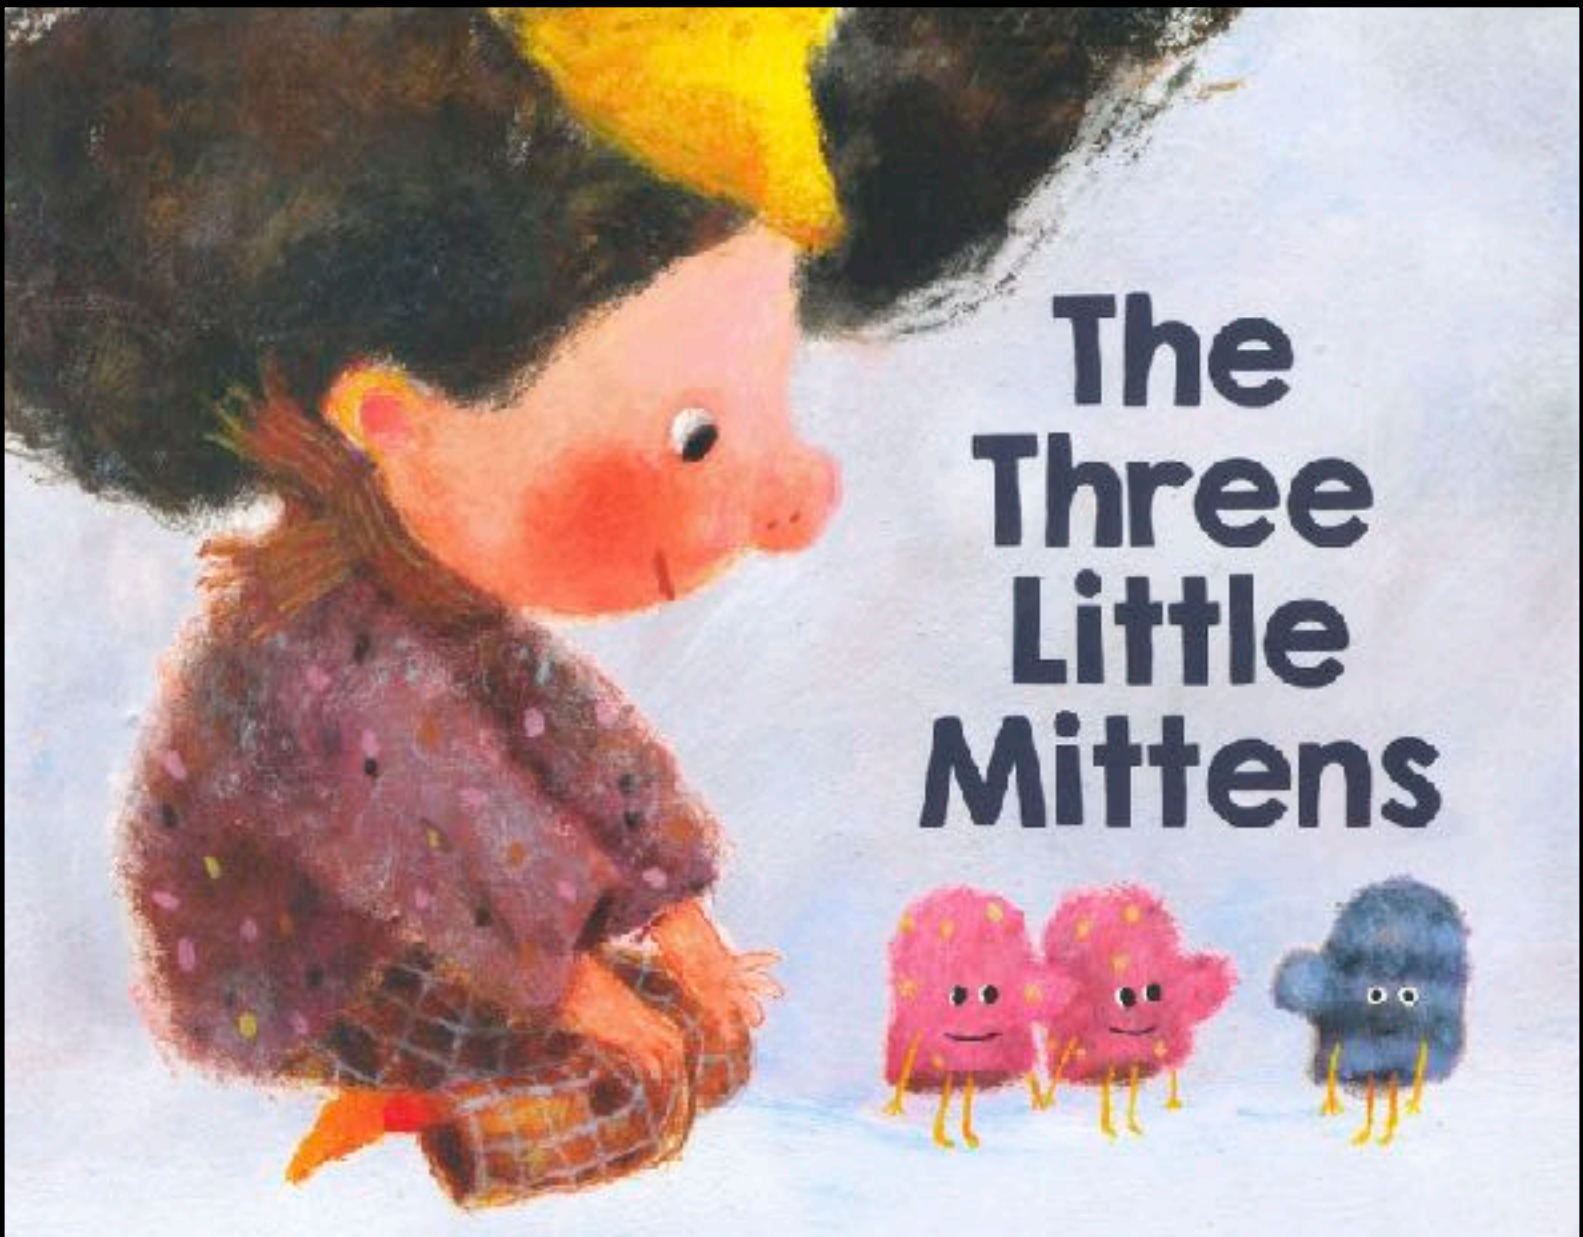

BY Maureen Fergus

ILLUSTRATED BY Scot Ritchie

Written by ELIZABETH DAVAZE | Illustrated by MARIANNE FERRER

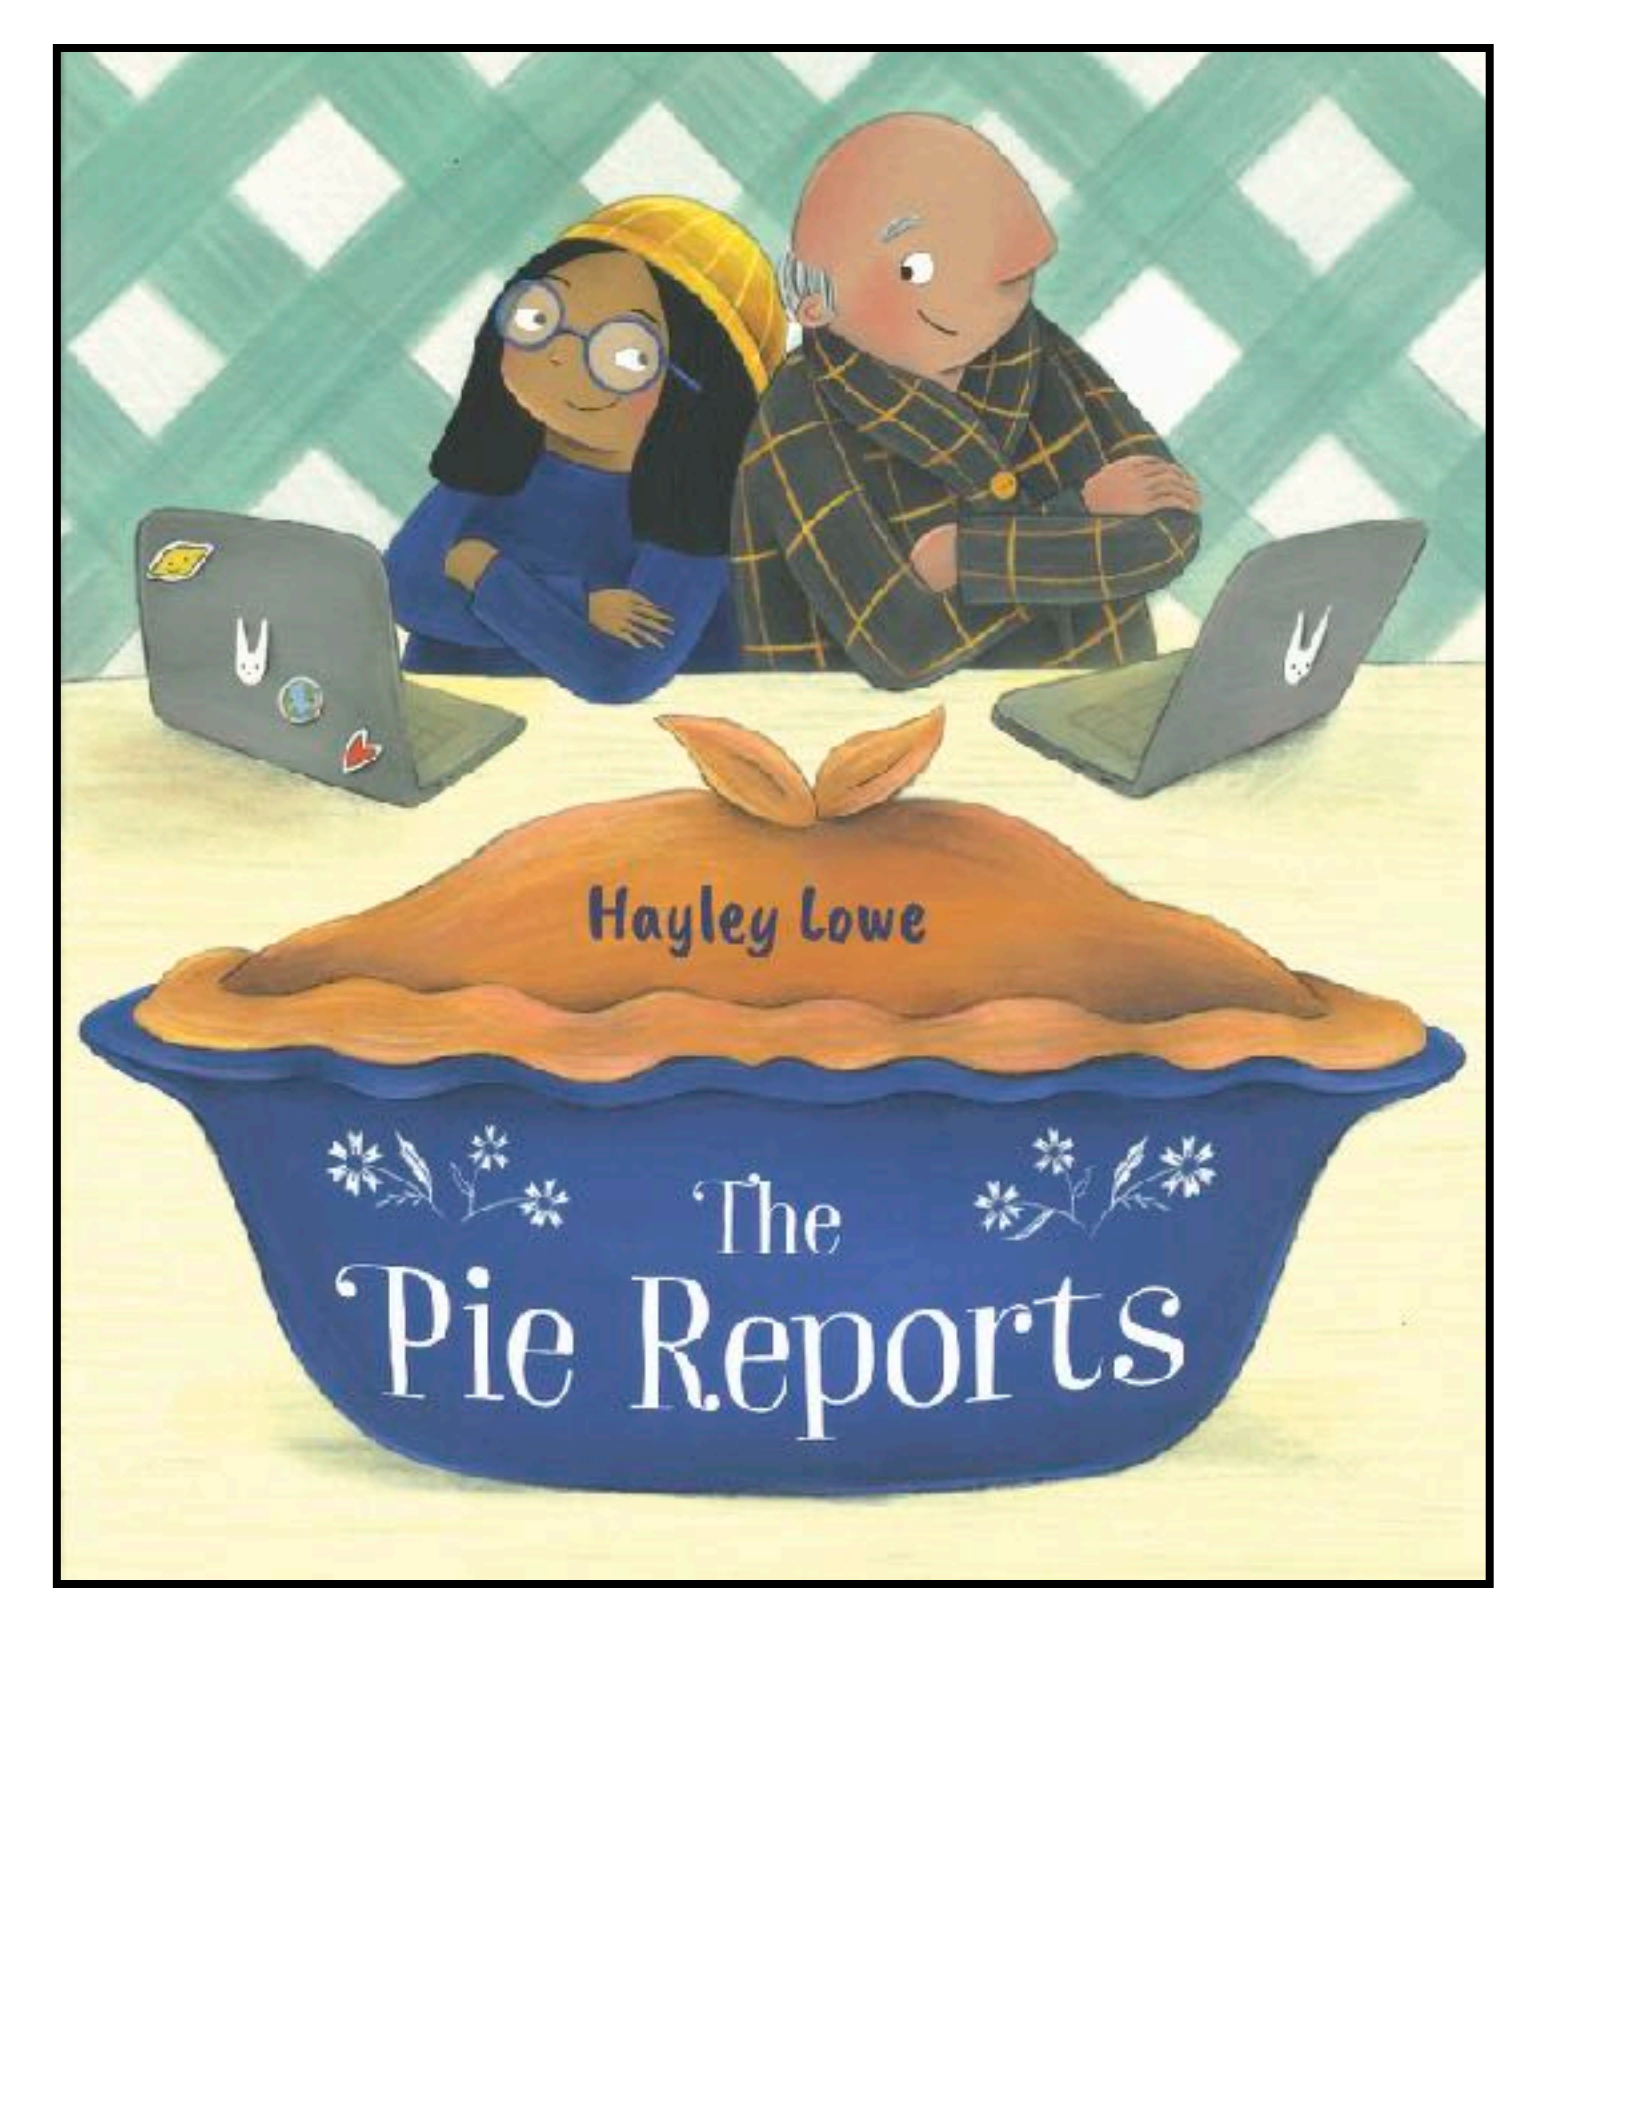

The Weedflower

A soft, painterly illustration. On the left, a child with dark hair and a yellow hat is shown from the chest up, looking down. They are wearing a brown, textured sweater. On the right, three small, fuzzy mittens are standing on a light blue surface. Two are pink with yellow spots, and one is blue with yellow spots. All three have simple faces and thin yellow legs. The title 'The Three Little Mittens' is written in a large, bold, dark blue font to the right of the child.

The Three Little Mittens

WRITTEN BY Linda Bailey ILLUSTRATED BY Natalia Shaloshvili

An illustration of a woman with dark hair, glasses, and a yellow beanie, and a bald man in a plaid shirt, both sitting at a table with laptops. In the foreground is a large pie in a blue dish. The pie has a small plant growing out of the top. The background is a green and white diamond pattern.

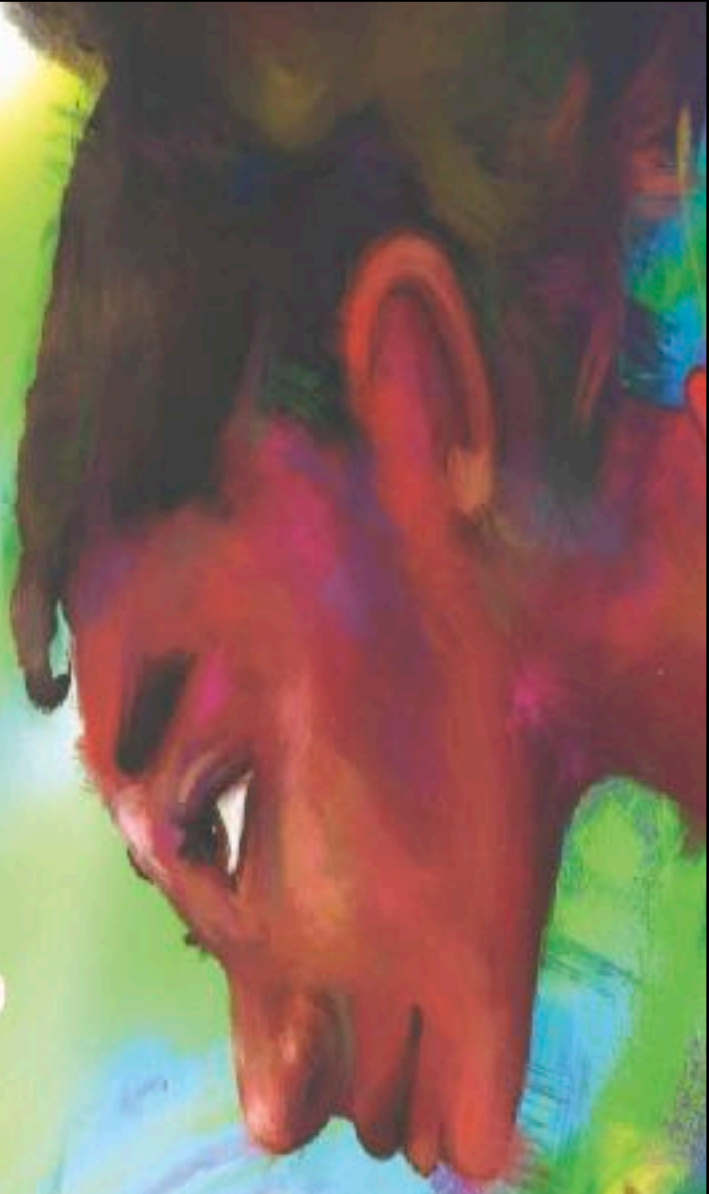

Hayley Lowe

The Pie Reports

I, Too, Am Here

WRITTEN BY Morgan Christie

ILLUSTRATED BY
Marley Berot

Still My Tessa

Sylv Chiang

Mathias Ball

OTIS & PEANUT

WORDS BY NASEEM HRAB

DRAWINGS BY KELLY COLLIER

Julie Flett

Let's Go!

haw êkwa!

INTO THE GOBLIN MARKET

WORDS BY
VIKKI VANSICKLE PICTURES BY JENSINE ECKWALL

Do Hippos Brush Their Teeth?

How Animals Care for Their Bodies

Written by
Etta Kaner

Illustrated by Jenna Piechota